General Information

Welcome:

The Kendall County Fair Association and the Livestock Committee encourages your participation in this year's Labor Day Livestock Show. It is our pleasure to welcome you to the beautiful city of Boerne and the Kendall County Fair Grounds.

Fair Dates:

This year the Labor Day Livestock Show will continue with the 2nd Annual Sanctioned Steer Show. The Steer Show shall take place Saturday, August 28, 2010. Then in conjunction with the Kendall County Fair on Saturday & Sunday, September 4 & 5, 2010, the Lamb, Goat and Swine Shows shall be held. The Board of Directors of the Kendall County Fair Association and the Livestock Committee reserves the right postpone, shorten, or extend the events as deemed necessary for the good of this event and all concerned.

Interpretation of the rules:

The Board of Directors of the Kendall County Fair Association shall defer the final interpretation of all rules and regulations of the Labor Day Livestock Show to the Livestock Committee. This committee shall arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions, and concerns that may arise from this event, and may adjust the rules as its judgment determines. Any exhibitor who violates the following rules may be required to forfeit all privileges, fees paid, and premiums or prizes. The Livestock Committee may also require the immediate removal of the exhibit from the premises. Special rules and regulations are published in each department where necessary. If there are any conflicts between the special rules and requirements and the general rules, a determination of the rules will be provided by the Livestock Committee on a case by case basis.

Liability Statement:

All exhibitors and exhibits shall comply with the rules and regulation of the Labor Day Livestock Show. The Kendall County Fair Board of Directors, the Livestock Committee, its agents and volunteers shall not be liable for loss, damage, or injury, but shall take all feasible precautions to prevent any such loss, damage, or injury to you and your property, or livestock, and visitors to the Livestock Show and Fair. Each exhibitor will be responsible for taking care of their exhibits and any damage or injury such exhibit causes.

Fire Regulations:

No smoking in any building, open air or enclosed. No containers containing flammable liquids will be allowed in any buildings. No cooking, grilling or open fires on the Kendall County Fair Grounds. Concessions shall be available.

Alcohol Regulation:

No ice chest may be brought on the grounds to due licensing requirements of the TABC. Concessions shall be available.

Special Needs:

Any special needs or requirements not mentioned in this publication should be brought to the attention of the Livestock Committee or Show Manager for determination and assistance.

Exhibitor FAQ's

What are the deadlines for entries?

August 20, 2010 is the entry deadline for cattle exhibits. August 30, 2010 is entry deadline for lamb, goat, and swine exhibits. Late fees may be assessed.

Can I enter livestock after the entry deadline?

Yes, but late fees will be added. See individual sections for fees.

How do I submit my entries?

Please print entry form found on our website, have them signed by parent or legal guardian, and mail along with payment to: Denise Vadnais, P.O. Box 2154, Boerne, Texas, 78006.

When do I get stall assignments?

No stalls are pre-assigned. They are available on a first come first serve basis.

Do I bring my own shavings?

Yes, but please note that there is no hay allowed in the cattle barn, animals must be on cedar shavings.

Do I need health papers on my animals?

No, we do not require health papers, but any animal infected with disease or parasite should not be brought to the show. If any animal is determined to be contagious or infected, it must be removed from the grounds immediately at the owner's expense for the protection of others.

Is this a Blow & Show event?

Yes! This is not a fitted show. It is Blow & Show only!

Can I bring my animals in earlier than the specified arrival time?

In some cases we do allow for early arrival. Please contact Denise @ 830-446-1950 for details.

Can I get an early release after the show?

Early releases can cause traffic problems in our small area. Please respect other exhibitors arriving or departing with their animals. For any special needs please see staff in show office.

What passes will each exhibitor get? When will I get these passes?

Passes are issued for Labor Day Weekend only. For those entering only the Cattle show on August 28, 2010 will not require passes.

Each exhibitor will be given a parking pass and gate passes for themselves and their parents. For families with multiple children showing, you will receive the same parking pass and passes for exhibitors and parents. We are sorry, because these passes also allow you access to the rest of the fair grounds, we can't provide passes for siblings, grandparents, aunts, uncles, or other family.

Passes will be available in the show office on the day of the show.

Didn't get your questions answered?

Show Secretary: Dennis Vadnais

General Rules

1. Each exhibitor shall be subject to all the rules and regulations of the Labor Day Livestock Show, The Kendall County Fair Association, and the organization sanctioning the event. Conflicts between these rules will be decided by the Livestock Committee and the show manager.
2. Great effort is taken to provide good quality judges. Judges are requested to make themselves familiar with all breeds that will be judging. Please show respect at all times to our judges. All Judge's decisions will be final.
3. No judge or any member of his or her immediate family may exhibit anything in any class that he or she will be judging.
4. Protests or complaints may be filed with the Show Office. If the protest or complaint can not be satisfied, then you may make a protest to the TJLA. A non-refundable cash or certified check deposit is required. TJLA office can be contacted for further information.
5. Exhibitors and Showman must be Texas 4-H or FFA members, currently enrolled in Public or Private school below the college level. Pee-wee divisions do not require school enrollment.
6. Entries must be postmarked as follows:
August 20, 2010 for Cattle Show.
August 30, 2010 for Lamb, Goat, & Swine Shows

Entries will be only accepted with payment.

7. Late entries will be accepted. Entries received after the deadline will be assessed fees. See individual sections for fee amounts.
8. No refunds after August 20, 2010. Refunds must be requested in writing prior to deadline. Monies eligible for refund that are not requested by the deadline will be considered forfeited to the Kendall County Fair Association.
9. Any Exhibitor issuing a check for payment of fees which does not clear their account for any reason will have 5 days in which to make payment. Exhibitor will not be allowed to participate in event until payment, including a $35.00 return check fee, is paid in full. If the event is completed when the check is returned, the sanctioning organization will be notified, points withheld and exhibitor may be prevented from participating in other sanctioned events.
10. Each individual exhibitor must have an entry form signed by a parent or legal guardian. Included on that entry form is a photography release, which allows the Kendall County Fair Association to use the exhibitor's photographs in marketing plans, websites, news releases and other printed materials that assist the organization in its mission of encouraging youth development through agricultural events.

11. No stalls or pens will be assigned. Stalling will be on a first arrival basis.
12. ALL LIVESTOCK EXHIBITED MUST MEET THE CURRENT TEXAS ANIMAL HEALTH COMMISSION REGULATIONS.
13. All animals must be free of infectious or contagious disease and parasites, such as ringworm, ticks, lice or mites. If an animal is found to carry an infectious disease or parasite that can be transmitted to other animals or exhibitors, the owner will be required to treat the animal to prevent spread of the disease or parasite or remove the animal from the grounds. No refunds will be given for animals required to be removed by show officials or veterinarian.
14. Cattle coming to the Fair from areas that are not "Modified Certified" for Brucellosis must be accompanied by a certificate signed by a veterinarian showing that the cattle are from a certified herd or were negative to a Brucellosis test not more than thirty days prior to the Fair.
15. No COOKING OR GRILLING on the Grounds due to possible burn bans or other restrictions by law. Concessions will be available.
16. Due to TABC regulations alcoholic beverages may NOT be brought onto the grounds. Concessions will be available.
17. No RV's or Air Conditioned Trailers will be allowed to plug into facilities.
18. No canopy tents will be allowed in or around the facilities unless provided by or approved by the KCFA.
19. Each exhibitor is responsible for cleaning the stalls or pens occupied by their animals and the alleys adjoining such stalls or pens. Litter should be placed in designated areas such as trash cans or dumpsters.
20. All animals must be sufficiently halter broke that they can be handled safely by both exhibitors and spectators. Animals should be in show condition. Animals that do not meet these requirements may at the discretion of the Livestock Committee be barred from the show barn. These animals must be removed from the grounds immediately,
21. All bulls that are six months or older must be tied with two ropes or a halter and rope during absence of the caretaker.
22. Only certain breeds of livestock are listed by name in the Premium List, but if other registered breeds are presented for exhibition, they may be accepted, and if accepted will be subject to all rules of the show and will be eligible for the same prize monies offered for similar breeds.
23. All exhibitors and parents are asked to cooperate with security personnel, Livestock Committee members, and Directors of KCFA in all matters of policy, including parking and admissions. Those exhibitors not cooperating may have their entries cancelled and then must remove their exhibits from the grounds immediately. They will also forfeit any fees paid.
24. Code of Conduct: All exhibitors, parents and staff are expected to behave in a manner that provides a positive environment for youth to learn, grow, and have fun while showing off all the hard work that goes into each project. Respect on another. Treat each other with kindness. Show good sportsmanship at all times.
25. Exhibitors are encouraged to hang signs over their exhibits to advertise their herds.
26. All empty trailers must park in DESIGNATED AREAS ONLY. Please note the arrival, departure and parking instructions found on the included map. Parking in some areas is restricted and vehicles left in those areas are subjected to towing and impounding at the owners expense.
